A. WALLIS

El ered at the Hopkinsville Post. Insurance Drama at Dinner-Argument For Life Income Insurance.

The third annual dinner of the F. A. Wallis Agency of the Fidelity Mutual Life in Greater New York, held in Delmonico's on Monday night, was attended by several bundred agents, including twenty-five representatives of the Philadelphia agency and the home office, and by a number of prominent laymen, including several an certising Rates on Applications city and county officials. It was a most interesting banquet, during I hay. which entertainment was combined with instruction. The Wallis Agency is the leader of the Fidelity Mutual and this leadership, under the able direction of Mr. Wallis, was built up in a short time.

NEW POLICY DESCRIBED

One of the interesting features of the dinner was the announcement by A single bandit near Cheyenne, President Walter Le Mar Talbot of the Wyoming, robbed the passengers of company's new life income for the a Pullman car Tuesday night and the assured policy. Another feature was next night two bandits went through the debut of Mr. Wallis as playwright, a Rock Island train the same way, all his ideas of life insurance versus death making their escape. The bandit insurance being incorporated in a business also flourishes outside of playlet cleverly acted by Mutual talent. What Counts?

We offer the suggestion that it is what you SAVE, not what you earn, that counts.

It is nice to have a big salary or to be doing a big, profitable business, but what does it amount to if you do not save? That's where a reliable bank like ours is a big help. We will be glad to help you save by carefully guarding your deposits, by suggesting safe, profitable investments, and in every way in our power assisting you to accumulate something for a "rainy day" that's sure to come. We invite you to start an account with us, no matter how small.
